

Dear Sir/Madam,

ASIA JOURNALISM FELLOWSHIP 2016

Instructions for Referee

You are being approached to write a recommendation letter for an applicant to the Asia Journalism Fellowship. We appreciate your help, as we rely heavily on recommendation letters when selecting Fellows.

About the Fellowship

The programme brings around 15 journalists from across Asia to Singapore's Nanyang Technological University for three months. Fellows pursue their intellectual interests through their independent research projects, attend seminars, and engage with key newsmakers in Singapore. The Fellowship is a joint initiative of Temasek Foundation and NTU (<http://www.ajf.sg>).

Your letter

Your reference letter should comment on the impact that the applicant has already made, and his/her potential to make a difference to his/her profession and society in the future. Please compare the applicant with other journalists you know and explain what special abilities and qualities he/she has.

How to send your letter

Please e-mail your letter directly to applications@ajf.sg. In the "Subject" field of your e-mail, type the full name of the applicant. Or, you can pass your letter to the applicant to include in his/her application.

Deadline

Applications will only be considered if all materials are received by 5pm (Singapore time) on Sunday, 14 February 2016.

Thank you once again for your contribution to the Asia Journalism Fellowship.

Alan John & Cherian George
Directors, Asia Journalism Fellowship
