

Dear Sir/Madam,

ASIA JOURNALISM FELLOWSHIP 2023

Instructions for Referee

We would like you to write a recommendation letter for an applicant to the Asia Journalism Fellowship. We appreciate your help, as we rely heavily on recommendation letters when selecting Fellows.

About the Fellowship

The 2023 programme will engage about 15 journalists from across Asia for eight weeks – four weeks online, and four weeks in Singapore. The Fellowship is a joint initiative of Temasek Foundation and the Institute of Policy Studies, which is part of the Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy at the National University of Singapore (www.ajf.sg).

Tell us about the applicant

Your reference letter should comment on the impact that the applicant has already made, and his/her potential to make a difference to his/her profession and society in future. Please describe his/her special abilities as a journalist as well as unique personal qualities that make him/her an outstanding individual.

How to send your letter

You may pass your letter to the applicant to include in his/her application, or e-mail it directly to applications@ajf.sg. In the “Subject” field of your e-mail, type “Recommendation Letter for (Full name of the applicant)”.

Deadline

Applications will be considered only if all materials, including recommendation letters, are received by the end of Wednesday, 19 April 2023 (GMT+8).

Thank you once again for your contribution to the Asia Journalism Fellowship.

Alan John
Director
Asia Journalism Fellowship